Terms and conditions

“Leonardo 4 Music” Awards 2023

Climate, Equality & Peace

The “Leonardo 4 Music” Awards are part of the “Leonardo 4 Children” non-profit initiative. The Awards allow young music composers to use and develop their creativity and artistic skills to interpret with an original music key topics of global relevance: climate change and environmental sustainability, equality including gender and social equality, and peace.

They can take as source of inspiration a fable or a work by Leonardo da Vinci, an original work by winners of the previous editions of Leonardo 4 Children, the scene of a movie, or a poem/story on the topics of climate, equality or peace.

1. Duration

The award is open between 20th December 2022 and 31st May 2023.

2. Eligibility

“Participants”: the authors of the works eligible for the awards shall be young people legally resident in a Member State of the European Union¹, aged between 16 and 30 years old at the date of submission, enrolled in or graduated from a High school / Conservatory / Music school.

Contributions from young composers resident in other countries outside the EU are welcome, and may receive a special mention by the Jury.

“Applicants”: the formal application to the award shall be submitted by adult participants (aged 18-30) or by the responsible adults of minor applicants (aged 16-17), for example teachers or parents, having the approval of the legal representatives of the participants to take part in the award and subscribe to these “Terms and conditions”.

3. Work

The young music composers are invited to use their creativity to invent an original music composition interpreting one or more of the topics “Climate”, “Equality”, “Peace”.

¹ Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovenia, Slovakia, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom.

The work should:

- be completely original and not contain any third party's work;
- have a duration between 3' and 10';
- consist of a tonal music using between 1 and 7 music instruments (for example: piano, violin, viola, cello, bass, flute, oboe, clarinet, harp, guitar, percussion instruments, electronic instruments), and/or songs by singer voices or choir;
- be inspired and focused on the topics of climate, equality and/or peace, for example:
 - for the topic “climate”, interpret the issue of climate change and environmental sustainability, such as: natural environment and biodiversity; water; recycling; energy; transport; agriculture and food;
 - for the topic “equality”, interpret the issue of equality between people, such as: promoting non-discrimination and social inclusion, fighting social stereotypes; promoting gender equality, fighting gender stereotypes; promoting income equality, fighting poverty;
 - for the topic “peace”, interpret the issue of peace between people, such as: peace among family members and friends; peace among social, political, ethnic, economic groups; peace among people, nations, regions.

The participants could be inspired by one of the following:

- Works by Leonardo da Vinci on nature or equality, such as selected fables by Leonardo da Vinci, available at <https://carano4children.org/fables-of-leonardo-da-vinci>;
- Fables by children or Art & Science works by teenagers which won the past “Leonardo 4 Children” editions, available at <https://carano4children.org/leonardo4children-2020>
<https://carano4children.org/leonardo4children-2021>
<https://carano4children.org/leonardo4children-2022>
- Scene of a movie or a story (e.g. poem, fable) which relates to climate, equality and/or peace.

4. Submission

The work should include:

- a partition, possibly written using a programme for musical partitions (eg Sibelius, Finale,...);
- the text played by the voices and choir, if applicable
- a recording of the composition or a MIDI file, if possible.

The works shall be submitted using the form available in Annex 1 and at: www.carano4children.org/leonardo4children-2023. The form, duly completed, must be sent to the following e-mail address: leonardo@carano4children.org.

By submitting the application, the participant agrees with these “Terms and conditions”.

The participants are welcome to post information on social media using @carano4children and #Leonardo4Children.

5. Scoring

The eligible works will be scored using the following award criteria:

- Inspiration on the selected topic of climate, equality and/or peace;
- Creativity and originality;
- Quality of tonal music;
- Quality of vocal and choral elements, if applicable;
- Alignment with Leonardo’s work or other source of inspiration (movie, story), if indicated by the applicant.

6. Jury

The Jury will be selected by the Advisory Board and include professional members from at least 3 different countries: composers, musicians and singers.

The Jury members shall be independent, have no conflict of interest and commit to adhere to the highest standards of impartiality and fairness in their judgement. During the evaluation process, the Jury will not have access to the personal data of the applicant, nor the participating children, in order to ensure fairness in their judgement.

The participants cannot contact the members of the Jury. The judgement of the Jury is final and cannot be appealed.

7. Awards

The announcement of winners will be made by June 2023, and the award ceremony will take place in October 2023.

The 1st winning composer will be offered the opportunity to use her/his music composition for a campaign or a promotional video of UNICEF Belgium.

The 2nd winning composer will be offered the opportunity to use her/his music composition for the promotional video and campaign of “Leonardo 4 Children” non-profit initiative.

The 3 works with the best scoring will receive an award, which will consist in:

- talent development programme, with a budget of € 500 for the 1st winner and € 300 for the 2nd and 3rd winner, which can be used for developing the music skills of winners, for example via workshops, visits or material;

For the 2nd winner, the special “Ermanno Testi” prize of € 300 is dedicated to the memory of Ermanno Testi, who passed away on 15 October 2022. Musician, with a diploma in piano and jazz music and specialization in choral conducting, counterpoint and fugue, Ermanno Testi was a concert performer, teacher, musicologist and music critic. He dedicated an intense and passionate activity as choir director, performing in Italy, Europe and America and received prestigious national and international awards.

- live performance of the winning music works at award ceremony and concerts/events; promotion on website, social media and promotional material, at public events, institutions or public places;
- publication on “Leonardo 4 Children” book;
- “Leonardo 4 Children” award certificate.

The Jury may decide to provide other special awards, including proposing the winning works to take part in other famous music awards. We invite partners and sponsors to offer special awards for the winners to develop their talent in music, for instance in memory of music personalities and experts.
